ARTICLE IX

Section 1. Indemnification

The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed claim, demand, action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise. Such indemnification shall be against expenses including, without limitation, attorney's fees, judgements, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such claim, demand, action, suit, or proceeding including any appeal of such action, suit or proceeding, if he or she acted in good faith or in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if he or she had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful. However, with respect to any action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgement in its favor, no indemnification shall be made with respect to any claim, issue or matter as to which such person is adjudged liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to the corporation unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such action or suit was brought determines, on application, that despite the adjudication of liability, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity in view of all the circumstances of the case. Any indemnification under this article shall be made only on a determination by a majority of disinterested directors or upon the approval of a majority of shareholders, that indemnification is proper in the particular circumstances because the party to be indemnified has met the applicable standard of conduct. Determination of any claim, demand, action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the party did not meet the applicable standard of conduct. Indemnification may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of any claim, demand, action, suit, or proceeding, on a preliminary determination that the director or officer met the applicable standard of conduct and on a receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount, unless it is ultimately determined that he or she is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this article.

Section 2. Directors and Officers Insurance

The corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who was or is a director or officer of the corporation, or who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred
