Re: CJJ Investments Corporation
Document No. P98000095623

Dear Sir or Madam:

After numerous attempts over the past several months to secure a federal employer's identification number for the company of reference through the IRS Teletin Fax Service (see copies of our various transmittals enclosed for your reference), we have just received notification that the company has been assigned such a number.

Accordingly, we are forwarding to you with this letter, an Application for Reinstatement executed by the undersigned as Registered Agent and by an officer of the corporation. The annual report fee for the year 2001 in the amount of $150.00 has been paid and applied by the Annual Report Section. However, we hereby kindly request a waiver of the reinstatement fee in light of the fact that: (i) the 2001 Annual Report was timely filed and returned only because of our inability to provide a tax identification number; and (ii) our office made a diligent and good faith attempt to obtain a tax identification number before and after notification by your office that the company was being dissolved and, for reasons beyond our control, was unable to get a tax identification number until today.

Your favorable consideration of this request will be very much appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Pedro P. Saez, Esq.
