Re: Attached annual report and re-instatement

To Whom It May Concern:

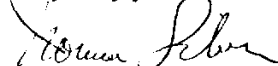

I recently received notice of administrative dissolution of Fab-Rex International, Inc. This was a great surprise. The notification indicated that the State of Florida did this as a result of failure to file an annual report.

Being new arrivals in the state of Florida, we knew nothing of this and never received notification to file a report. We arrived in Florida in September 1998, expecting to move into our new location in a couple of months, and, in fact, were forced to move to four different locations before we were able to finally move into our present address. I can only assume the notifications to file were lost and or/misdelivered.

I have attached the mailing that finally did arrive at our correct address and you will note all the address changes. In fact, although it is marked 10/19, it did not arrive in our mailbox until approximately a week ago.

I have enclosed a check in the amount of $150.00 which I understand is the amount that should have been sent with the annual report and respectfully request that you accept this as full payment in view of the circumstances.

Very truly yours,

Norman Silver
