CAPITAL STOCK AND STOCK TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS

The corporation is authorized to have outstanding one class of stock, to be designated as Common Stock. The maximum number of shares of Common Stock which the corporation is authorized to have outstanding is 7,500 shares of Common Stock of a par value of $1.00 per share. Holders of Common stock are entitled to vote on all questions required by law on the basis of one vote per share and there shall be no cumulative voting. Holders of Common Stock shall have pre-emptive rights to subscribe to the corporation's securities and are entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution.

All issued stock shall be held of record by not more than five persons. The stock shall be issued and transferable only to natural persons who are not nonresident aliens.

No stockholder shall have the right to sell, assign, pledge, encumber, transfer or otherwise dispose of any shares of the corporation without first offering such stock to the corporation for a sale price based upon the net asset value of the Corporation. Such offer shall state that the purchase price is all cash, to be paid at a closing that shall take place no later than four months from the date of acceptance. The offer shall be in writing, signed by the selling stockholder, shall be sent by certified mail return receipt requested to the corporation at its principal place of business and shall state that the offer shall remain open for acceptance by the corporation for a period of 14 days from the date of delivery. If the corporation fails or refuses within that period to accept the offer to sell the shares in accordance with the terms of the offer, then the shareholder shall have the right to dispose of the subject shares as the shareholder may see fit for a period of three months, after which time the right of first refusal set forth above shall be revived if the stock has not been properly transferred of record.

On the death of any stockholder, the corporation shall have the right to purchase all shares owned by such shareholder immediately prior to his or her death on the terms set forth above, and this provision shall be binding on the executor, administrator or personal representative of each stockholder, who shall be obligated to make the written offer to sell described above within three months after the date of death of the stockholder. Each share certificate issued by the corporation shall have printed or stamped thereon the following legend:

“These shares are not registered under either Federal or Florida law, and are held subject to certain transfer restrictions imposed by the Articles of Incorporation.
