To Whom it May Concern,

I have just received a second application for my Uniform Business Report. My original application was mailed May 5, 2002 along with my check. After reviewing my bank statement, I have discovered that my check has not yet cleared. My only conclusion is that it has been lost in the mail system. This will be my third year paying this fee and, if you look back in your records you will see that it has always been paid on time. I am enclosing a check for the original amount due and hope that you will accept it with my deepest apology for any inconvenience this may have caused. I remain,

Sincerely,
