Enclosed is a check for $150.00 with my 2000 Uniform Business Report. I am asking you to waive the late filing fee.

This would have been the first year for my corporation to receive this report.

I can honestly say that I never received the first notice. After I received the second notice I thought that my registered agent may have received the first notice but after contacting him I was told he had not received it. After checking with the state I was told it should have come to the corporation's place of business. You will notice that on my report I have corrected the spelling of the street in my address. Perhaps this had something to do with my not receiving the first notice.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Donato Pensenti
