(d) To own real and personal property necessary for the rendition of the professional services hereby authorized.

Article VI. Initial Board of Directors. The corporation shall have a board of directors which shall initially consist of one (1) individual. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by an amendment to, or in the manner provided in, the bylaws, provided that the number of directors shall not be less than one (1) individual at any time. (b) In the event the ownership of shares in the corporation shall be in any person, trust, corporation, estate or partnership who or which is not qualified to own such shares under the provisions of Chapter 21, Florida Statutes, and there has been no voluntary transfer of stock, the board of directors and shareholders of the corporation shall have the power to amend these Articles of Incorporation to effect a change in the nature and purpose of the business authorized by these Articles, so that the corporation shall have the power to conduct any business authorized by Chapter 607, Florida Statutes. If there is any vacancy on the board of directors of the corporation at or after the occurrence of the event referred to in this subparagraph, that vacancy shall be filled by the remaining board of directors or the shareholders until this amendment is complete and effective, or until such ownership of shares no longer exists. Article X. Severance and Termination of Employment. If any officer, director, shareholder, agent or employee of the corporation who has been rendering to the public the professional services described in Article III becomes disqualified by law to render such professional services within the State of Florida, or accepts employment that places restrictions or limitations upon such person's continued rendering of such professional services, then, in any such event, such person's office and/or employment with and/or financial interest in this corporation shall cease forthwith and such person shall not thereafter participate or share in the profit realized by the corporation on account of professional services; subject, however, to the provisions of Article IX(b) dealing with "Amendments." Should any amendment be effected which changes the nature and purpose of this corporation so that the restrictions of Chapter 621, Florida Statutes, do not apply, then the restrictions of this Article shall not thereafter apply; provided, however, that until such amendment is effected, such person shall render no professional services, shall hold no office, shall not serve on the board of directors of the corporation, and shall have no financial interest in this corporation except to receive payment for any stock owned and any other amounts that are lawfully due and owing by the corporation.

Article XI. Rights of Shareholder Whose Interest Terminates Under Article X. If any shareholder of the corporation is required to terminate his or her financial interest in the corporation because of the application of Article X, or the application of Chapter 621, Florida Statutes, and should these Articles not be amended as provided in Article IX(b), the financial interest of such shareholder shall terminate immediately and automatically, except to receive payment for such stock in the corporation as may be owned by such shareholder and any other amounts that are lawfully due and owing to such shareholder by the corporation; and such shares of stock shall not be entitled to dividends or stock rights of any kind. Such stock shall be forthwith transferred, sold, purchased, pledged or redeemed at such price or value and under such terms as shall be authorized as set forth in the bylaws of the corporation or shareholders' agreement, if any, and if not, by mutual agreement, or if no such agreement can be reached, by arbitration.
