Dear Secretary Harris:

Last year I formed a new Sub-S Corporation for a part time business. Unfortunately I did not receive the first mailing requiring the Annual Report now referred to as the Uniform Business Report. I was on sabbatical as an International Business Professor at Florida Atlantic University in Fort Lauderdale serving as Lecturer of International Management at the Judge Institute of Management Studies of the University of Cambridge, England. I recently returned to work in Florida and discovered this required report which is enclosed.

On calling your office I was advised to submit this letter and a fee for $150 given that I did not receive the first request. Thank you for your understanding and waiving the late fee of $400.

Sincerely,

Michael R. Mullen, Ph.D.
President
