Dear Sir or Madame:

We were quite surprised recently when we received a second notice for our Uniform Business Report. The original had been filed on April 12, 2000 and was sent in along with our check for $158.75, which included $8.75 for certificate of status. Upon receiving the notice, we contacted our bank to find out when the check cleared. We were informed that the check had not been presented for payment.

A call was then made to your office. We were instructed to submit our copy of the original notice, resigned in blue ink, as well as another check for $158.75. Please accept as our original filing.

Thank you for your help in this matter, and feel free to call if there is anything further to discuss.

Yours truly,

Connie Graham
Director
