To Whom It May Concern:

We wanted to notify your office that our corporation, CoupoNation Incorporated, did not receive the necessary information needed to maintain our active corporate status for the-2000 fiscal year.

This issue first came to our attention as the corporation was applying for various merchant accounts and loans. We would like the company to be reinstated to active status, but we don't feel that we should have to pay for reinstatement due to lack of notification. It was never our intention for the corporation to become inactive or involuntarily dissolve.

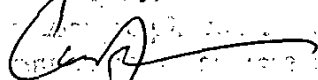

Our corporate address changed in August of 1999. Our mail was forwarded by the United States Postal Service for a period of approximately three months. We believe that this may have been the cause for the confusion and the lack of notification. We realize the ignorance is not an excuse, but we feel inexperience is.

Our previous address was: 500 Bamboo Harbor Court #207, Orlando, FL 32825. Our current address is: 632 Renaissance Pointe #206, Altamonte Springs, FL 32714.

We have enclosed a check for ~~$158.50~~<sup>75</sup> that would cover the normal corporate fees. We also realize that another fee in the amount of ~~$158.50~~<sup>75</sup> will be due again by April 1, 2001. We have every intention on paying the 2001 fiscal year fee in advance of this date.

We would appreciate your consideration in this oversight and accept our deepest regrets for any errors on our part.

Yours truly,

Curtis Azama
