RE: The 2 J's, Inc.
EIN 59-3606289

To Whom It May Concern;

I received the enclosed 2000 Uniform Business Report in my mail on July 10, 2000. This was the FIRST NOTICE that I received from the Department of State - Division of Corporations. In that I am a newly organized corporation, organized October 14, 1999, I was unsure what it was and turned the report over to my accountant, Thomas Kehoe, CPA. Mr. Kehoe has explained that this was, in fact, a SECOND NOTICE of a report that needed to be filled in and sent to the Division of Corporations along with a check which would extend my corporate status for another year. He explained that this SECOND NOTICE was requesting a check in the amount of $550.00.

In that I never received the first notice in the mail, I am requesting that you accept my check in the amount of $150.00 (which my accountant tells me is the amount that I would owe had I sent my check in on time if I had received the first notice request). I am asking that you waive any penalties and/or late fees this time considering that I did not receive the first notice.

If this is not acceptable, please notify me. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

June Ready Soos, Pres.
