Secretary of State:

On August 13, 1997, I requested a Certificate of Status for licensing purposes. The Certificate of Status arrived the week of August 18 with a report indicating the dates our Corporate Annual Reports had been filed. There was no record of a filing for 1997, which made me realize we had not yet received any correspondence from the Division of Corporations regarding this year's report.

During the year 1996, our corporate address changed to 1200 E. Kaley St. Orlando, FL 32806. This address change was received by the Division of Corporations because it is listed on our Corporate Detail Record Screen. Had the Division of Corporations mailed information to this address, it would have been forwarded to Array Design's current address listed below. Due to some form of miscommunication, the Division of Corporations recorded 1200 E. Kaley St. only as our Corporate Officer's address and not our place of business.

I called Linda Stitt in the Certification Section regarding this matter. She told me that although the address you have for our Corporate Officer is correct, reports are not mailed to officers. Because the principal address is listed incorrectly, we had not received this year's information. It is unfortunate the above mentioned address change was not recorded for the Corporation as well.

I was concerned about the confusion and was advised that the best course of action was to request a blank annual report form and, upon filing it, include a letter explaining the above stated circumstances.

Enclosed please find check #1144 in the amount of $165.00 along with our completed 1997 Corporate Annual Report for Array Design, P.A., FEI number 59-3052699. Following is the current correct mailing address for Array Design:

Array Design, P.A.
100 South Orange Avenue, Seventh Floor
Orlando, Florida 32801

Please note, the above address is the current place of business and mailing address for the corporation Array Design, P.A. Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Alison Ray
