COMPLETE WEEKLY GUIDE TO TELEVISION • WEEK OF MAY 10-16, 2015

BEST BETS THIS WEEK

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY

Julianne Margulies "The Good Wife" The Good Wife 9-10 p.m., WPEC, WFOR The drama's sixth season has been a roller-coaster ride for Alicia (Julianne Margulies), from considering running for state's attorney to winning the office — and subsequently having to give it up. Trying to determine what to do next in the season finale, Wanna Partner?, she learns a client is being held by police in a secret location.	Andrea Navedo "Jane the Virgin" The Following 8-10 p.m., WFLX More determined than ever to find Theo (Michael Ealy), Ryan (Kevin Bacon) throws caution to the wind as two new episodes are combined in the two-hour presentation The Edge/A Simple Trade. At the same time, Mark and Daisy are close to wreaking fresh havoc on the FBI — and on Mike in particular.	Scott Bakula "NCIS: New Orleans" Hell's Kitchen 8-9 p.m., WFLX It's blind-taste-test time again, as the new episode 8 Chefs Complete Again challenges the remaining contestants to identify various foods by flavor alone. The winners get a day at a Los Angeles restaurant and boutique where caviar is the house specialty.	Patricia Arquette "CSI: Cyber" Arrow 8-9 p.m., WTVX, WSFL Peril follows Oliver (Stephen Amell) and virtually everyone associated with him in My Name Is Oliver Queen, the series' third-season finale. Ra's al Ghul (guest star Matt Nable) has all of them in his sights, forcing Oliver to decide whether he's ready to become the new Ra's — and what that might mean for his existence overall.	Juliette Lewis "Wayward Pines" Gray's Anatomy 8-9 p.m., WPBF, WPLG The drama's 11th-season finale, You're My Home, continues the stories from the previous episode that were set in motion by a tragedy that struck Seattle. The doctors continue to try to hold their emotions — already raw from the personal loss they suffered recently — in check as they deal with the patients they still have to tend to.	Phil Keoghan "The Amazing Race" Grimm 8-9 p.m., WPTV, WTVJ Revenge is the motivator for Nick (David Giuntoli) in the season finale Cry Havoc, with the Royals the principal targets of his wrath. He's assisted by Trubel (guest star Jacqueline Toboni) in his effort to even the score. Juliette (Bitsie Tulloch) has her own dark trail to go down, particularly given her new partnership.	Queen Latifah "Bessie" Movie: Bessie 8-10 p.m., HBO Blues singer Bessie Smith (Queen Latifah) rises to fame in the 1920s to become a musical legend in this long-gestating musical biopic that has taken 22 years to reach the screen. Dee Rees cowrote and directed this poignant yet lively film, which also features Academy Award winner Mo'Nique (Precious) as Ma Rainey, another blues icon.
The Lizzie Borden Chronicles 10:02-11:02 p.m., LIFETIME In the new episode Fugitive Kind, Lizzie (Christina Ricci) devises a strategy that stops Siringo (Cole Hauser) in his tracks. Some of her moves elsewhere undermine Emma's (Clea DuVal) trust in her, however, and as Lizzie unleashes her more sinister side, Emma takes off her rose-colored glasses.	Jane the Virgin 9-10 p.m., WTVX, WSFL The serio-comic series' freshman season wraps up with Chapter Twenty-Two, as Jane (Gina Rodriguez) goes into labor ... twice. The first time, it's a false alarm; the second time, not so much. Xo (Andrea Navedo) is performing in Las Vegas with Rogelio (Jaime Cami), and her efforts to return to Jane generate problems.	NCIS: New Orleans 9-10:01 p.m., WPEC, WFOR The spinoff's first season wraps up with My City, a definite reflection of Pride's (Scott Bakula) ... well, pride in the jurisdiction he knows so well. He wants it to stay worthy of his affection and care as he suspects a traitor is inside the local law, and possibly his own organization, enabling a security breach to occur at the ports into the Big Easy.	CSI: Cyber 9-11 p.m., WPEC, WFOR The first series in the franchise to be able to boast it stars an Oscar winner ends its freshman season with two back-to-back episodes. A gem robbery and related murder in Detroit puts Avery (Patricia Arquette) and her team on the probe into a coinciding power outage in Bit by Bit.	Wayward Pines 9-10 p.m., WFLX A seemingly tranquil Idaho town cloaks darker elements — almost — in a new series based on Blake Crouch's novels and executive-produced by M. Night Shyamalan (The Sixth Sense), who also directed the premiere, Where Paradise Is Home. Matt Dillon, Melissa Leo, and Juliette Lewis star.	The Amazing Race 8-9 p.m., WPEC, WFOR The concluding hour of the show's 26th edition starts in Peru, but it ends up back on American turf ... in Dallas, specifically, where the remaining contestants have to get to the very top of AT&T Stadium. Whenever one reaches great heights, it's a long way down — as the teams find later when they must rappel down the Reunion Tower. Phil Keoghan hosts.	Movie: The Wrong Girl 8-10:02 p.m., LIFETIME The parents of Sophia (Sarah Grey), a model teenager and aspiring pianist, are encouraged when their painfully introverted daughter strikes up a friendship with a new student at her school. That friendship takes an unexpectedly dark turn, however, when the new girl starts to disrupt the lives of Sophia and her family.
