SCHOOLS

With 20 acres deliberately set aside for the Pasco County School District, Seven Oaks was able to secure an elementary school within the community, providing residents the ideal school location for their elementary-aged kids. Seven Oaks Elementary School, having received the five-star school award for the last nine years and a State "A" school for the last seven years, provides an ideal learning environment for every student to succeed and is surrounded by beautiful trees and green space. Resident's children then graduate to the other exceptional Pasco County schools in our district. Explore each school's website, located below, for more information.
