Welcome...

tell people, "if you are going to survive in Miami, you need to find a church home." Most of us do not have deep roots or an extended family that lives here. Miami is a new city... but it is a city of the future. So, you need to find a "church family." A place that gives you warmth and encouragement.

Kendall Community Church of God is a "family." Whether you are married, single, single again, or a single parent you will find identity and acceptance here in this congregation. When we say it is a "Family Church" we mean that we are inclusive. As a pastor, I try to know each and all of my congregants. I believe names are important. In a world that is growing impersonal... our Church Family gives you identity and connection. We have adopted the African saying, "It takes a whole village to raise a child." Our church is a village. Here in the midst of a thriving metropolis you will find personal warmth and acceptance.

Periodic "New Comer's Orientation Luncheon's" are held to help you identify with this fellowship. If you are interested in knowing more about this family of God, be sure to attend a worship service and inquire about the next luncheon.

Hope to see you soon!

Dr. Daniel Harden
