FIU Art Museum to host fun-filled family day

BY LAURA C. DELGADO

The Art Museum at Florida International University will be hosting a family day full of storytelling, dance and arts, called "Fiesta de la Familia," on Sunday, Oct. 10, from noon to 4 p.m.

This event is free to the public.

"Fiesta de la Familia" (Festival of the Family) is a fun-filled day where the public is given the chance to explore the vibrant cultures of Mexico and the American West and how they have blended and influenced culture.

"Families will have the opportunity to create art projects, win prizes and dance to the rhythms of an authentic Mariachi band," said Dahlia Morgan, director of the museum.

Families also can listen to storyteller Carrie Sue Ayver. Her repertoire includes folktales from around the world, contemporary stories, urban legends and literary classics. Ayver uses active, participatory storytelling that stimulates imagination and creativity on Mexican and Mexican-American folktales and stories.

Momentum Dance Company will be on hand to perform its new history-based program "A..."
