Dear Sir or Madam:

I was recently made aware that we had not filed our annual corporate report, at which time I immediately contacted your office. I was informed that a second notice was to be sent out. I did not receive the first one. Your records should show that we have always filed in a timely fashion. Please accept my apologies for this late filing, I have received the second notice and am sending in the fee along with letter. I respectfully ask that the penalty be waived due to the circumstances.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Carriazo
President
