The officer, director or committee member shall have the right to employ its own counsel in such action, suit or proceeding, but the fees of such counsel incurred after notice from the Association of its assumption of the defense thereof shall be at the expense of such officer, director or committee member unless: (1) the employment of counsel by the officer, director or committee member has been authorized by the Association; (ii) the Association shall have concluded that there may be a conflict of interest between the Association and the officer, director or committee member in the conduct of the defense of such action, suit or proceeding; (iii) the Association shall not in fact have employed counsel to assume defense of such action, suit or proceeding after reasonable request and opportunity to do so. The Association shall not settle any action or claims in any manner which would otherwise impose any action or claims in any manner which would otherwise impose any penalty on such officer, director or committee member without the officer's, director's or committee member's written consent.
