OFFICE OF CORPORATIONS

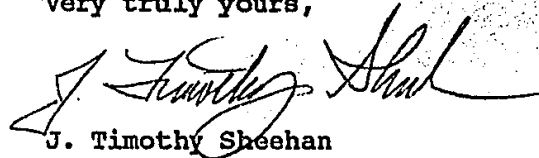

Dear Barbara:

In accordance with your telephone conversation this date with my secretary, please find enclosed the original and one copy of the Articles of Incorporation for the above referenced corporation, together with my office account check made payable to the Secretary of State in the amount of $122.50 for the filing fee. You requested in that conversation that we express the importance of receiving verbal and then written confirmation on Monday, October 27, 1997, that this corporation has been filed and that the corporate name was available. It is our understanding that you will run the name through your computer to the Secretary of State's office to see if indeed the name is available before delivering same to the Secretary of State's office. I would request that you call this office at 941/465-1551 to advise of said filing and thereafter, please mail the certificate to this office at your earliest convenience.
