Attention: Andy Dunlap

My apologies for not including a written statement on why I am omitting the reinstatement fee.

I first filed the 1997 Annual Report and fee in January, 1997. After three months of waiting and not wanting to miss the May deadline I called the Division of Corporations and was told that my check would probably clear shortly and not to worry. The second time I filed in early September, I was told not a problem, just pay the original $165. This time I sent the check registered. This is the third time I have submitted this request.

Under the circumstances, I do not believe it is fair that I should be penalized, because of a problem that was not of my making.

Sincerely,

Barry Allen
