[PROVISIONS FOR SEPARATE CLASSES OF STOCK] DIFFERENT VOTING RIGHTS

ARTICLE IV CAPITAL STOCK

The Corporation is authorized to have outstanding three classes of common stock designated as Class A Common, Class B Common and Class C Common stock. The maximum number of shares of common stock which the Corporation is authorized to have outstanding is 1,500 shares of Common Stock of a par value of $1.00 per share, of which 500 shares will be designated as Class A Common, 500 shares will be designated as Class B Common, and 500 shares will be designated as Class C Common.

All classes of common stock will be equal in all respects except with respect to voting rights, which shall be as follows:

- 1. Class A Common will have two votes per share;
- 2. Class B Common will have one vote per share;
- 3. Class C Common will be non-voting stock.

There shall be no cumulative voting.

Holders of each Class of Common Stock shall have pre-emptive rights to subscribe to the Corporation's securities, except that with respect to any issuance of shares of Common Stock of the Corporation, such preemptive right shall be on the following basis:

- 1. Holders of each class shall have first right to subscribe to all shares of such Class proposed to be issued.
- 2. If a shareholder fails to exercise such preemptive right with respect to all of the shares to which such shareholder is entitled to acquire pursuant to such right, any other shareholder holding shares of that Class shall have the right to acquire all remaining shares of such Class offered by the Corporation.

3. If any shares of a Class remain unsubscribed after being offered to all holders of such Class of common stock in accordance with the foregoing, the remaining shareholders shall have the right to acquire the unsubscribed shares on a pro-rata basis based on the total number of shares held by such other shareholders without regard to the Class of such other shares.
