whatsoever nature or kind, and to borrow money thereon by mortgage or otherwise.

6. To transact any lawful business for which Corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Business Corporation Act or engage in any other trade or business which can, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, be advantageously carried on as in connection with an auxiliary foregoing business.

7. To do such other things as are incidental to the foregoing or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the foregoing business.

FOURTH The aggregate number of authorized shares is: Nine hundred (900) Shares. Such shares shall be of single class (Common Stock), and shall have a par value of One Dollar ($1.00) per share.

FIFTH The Corporate existence shall begin effective April 27th 1998.

SIXTH Cumulative voting of shares of stock is authorized.

SEVENTH The Corporation shall indemnify any officer or director, or any former officer or director, to the full extent permitted by law.

EIGHTH Each stockholder of the Corporation shall have the right to purchase, subscribe for, or receive a right or rights to purchase or subscribe for, at the par value thereof, a pro rata portion of:

1. Any stock of any class that the Corporation may issue or sell, whether or not exchangeable for any stock of the Corporation of any class or classes and whether or not of unissued shares authorized by the Articles of Incorporation as originally filed or by any amendment thereof or out of shares of stock of the Corporation acquired by it after the issuance thereof, and whether issued for cash, labor done, personal property, or real property or leases thereof; or

2. Any obligations that the Corporation may issue or sell which are convertible into or exchangeable for any stock of the Corporation of any class or classes or to which is pertinent any warrant or warrants or other investment or instruments conferring on the holder the right to subscribe for or purchase from the Corporation any shares of its stock of any class or classes.

3. Any shareholder wishing to sell his interests in the company for whatever reason shall be obligated to offer said interest to the other shareholders who may buy that interest, under the terms and conditions set forth in these Articles of Incorporation.

4. If any shareholder receives a bona fide, legitimate offer, whether or not solicited by him, from a person not a shareholder, to purchase all or part of his interest in the company, and if the shareholder receiving the offer is willing to accept it, he shall give written notice of the amount and terms of the offer, the identity of the proposed buyer, and his willingness to accept the offer to each of the other shareholders. The other shareholders shall have the option, within 60 days after the notice is given, to purchase that shareholder's interest on the same terms as those contained in the offer.

If the remaining shareholders do not purchase the departing shareholder's shares, under the terms provided in these Articles of Incorporation, within 60 days the entire business of the corporation shall be put up for sale, and listed with the appropriate sales agencies, agents or brokers.

5. Except as otherwise provided in these Articles of Incorporation, the value of the corporation shall be made by determining the net worth of the corporation as of the date of sale of a shareholder's interest in the corporation. Net worth is defined as the market value, as of that date, of the following assets:

- I. All tangible property, real or personal, owned by the business;
- II. All the liquid assets owned by the business, including cash on hand, bank deposits and CDs or other monies;
- III. Accounts receivable;
- IV. All earned but un-billed fees;
- V. All money presently earned for work in progress;
- VI. Less the total amount of all debts owed by the business.

6. The shareholders, present and future understand and agree that the preceding business-valuation clause may not fully and adequately reflect the worth of the business after it has been successfully established, if the business has earned goodwill. Therefore, the shareholders agree that 1 year after the commencement of the business they will meet to consider amending this business-valuation clause to include a method that will reflect any goodwill earned by the business.

NINTH Anything to the contrary contained in these Articles of Incorporation notwithstanding, if the shareholders of the Corporation shall so elect, they may exercise all powers and conduct the business and affairs of this Corporation in lieu of the Board of Directors.

TENTH Directors of this Corporation need not be residents of the State of Florida, unless otherwise provided in the Articles or By-Laws of the Corporation. The Shareholders of this Corporation shall have exclusive authority to fix the compensation of directors of this Corporation, unless otherwise provided in the Articles or By-Laws.

ELEVENTH Members of the Board of Directors may participate in special meetings of the Board of Directors by means of a conference telephone as provided by law, but regular meetings of the Board of Directors must be attended in fact in person by each director.
