RE: Merger of Florida Atlantic Land Corporation into New Hope Sugar Company
Document Nos. 356100 and 248674

Dear Ms. Coulliette:

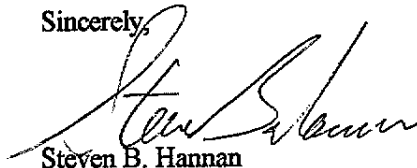

Thank you filing the Articles of Merger as indicated in you letter to me dated July 16, 1998, the original of which is attached with the certificate of good standing for New Hope Sugar Company and a duplicate original of the Articles of Merger and Plan of Merger as stamped filed by the Secretary of State on July 9, 1998.

However, in my letter to the State dated July 8, 1998, a copy of which is also attached, I requested a certified copy of the Articles of Merger to be returned to me. Instead, I received a certificate of good standing for New Hope Sugar Company. Apparently, since I was short $35.00 in the filing fees for the merger, I received a certificate of good standing rather than a certified copy of the Articles of Merger. Unfortunately, I have no need for the certificate of good, so I have returned it to you.

Since I still need a certified copy of the Articles of Merger, as initially requested, I have enclosed a check in the amount of $35.00 to pay for the additional amount that was needed at the time of filing. Please return to me the enclosed duplicate original of the Articles of Merger and Plan of Merger as a certified copy of the filing.

Once again, if you have any questions or problems with the foregoing, please call me.

Sincerely,

Steven B. Hannan
