Corporate Annual Report

Gentlemen:

I am writing to your office as per my phone conversation dated the 9th of August. My Cafe Vico, Inc. never received the first notice on its 1998 Corporate Annual Report. I just recently got the second report which I am filling out as per your instruction and sending with this letter and the payment of $150.00. I believe that through no fault of my own the original report was most likely lost in the mail and I see no reason why I should suffer monetary because of this.

Thank you for your time and understanding in this most pressing matter.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Carlleen Velasquez". The signature is fluid and stylized, with a large loop at the end of the last name.
