Atten: Annual Reports Filings

Dear State Administrator:

I am filing my Annual Report with a fee of $150.00 and asking your consideration for its approval.

The first six months of this year were very difficult because my Mom (age 89) was diagnosed with cancer of the elbow -- after surviving breast cancer at age 82.

The worst part is that she lives in the suburbs of Philadelphia. I had to change jury duty in order to be with her for her operation in May. After she began healing the cancer doctor told her that this type of cancer can come back and that she had to undergo radiation.

At her age, that became a very painful procedure. Her treatments are over but she is in sever pain constantly. So, I am going back to help her again.

Meanwhile, I am trying to resolve matters like this. I would appreciate your help since i can not afford the 750.00 fee and penalty. This is a terrible thing to do to small business. It leaves very little choice but to dissolve and thereby eliminate a yearly fee and for some state corporate taxes.

Please advise me as soon as possible. Thank you.

Rene E. Barnett
