Re: To Late Filing of Annual Report

Dear Sir:

Recently, I received your notice that my corporation was dissolved. Obviously, it was not my intent to allow this to happen. Originally, when I set up my corporation, I was not aware that an annual report had to be filed. I had initially filed my articles of incorporation through a corporate kit company, AmeriLawyer.

I did send a my annual report in, but I did not include payment. Please see enclosed copy of the annual report and see the date that I signed it. Since, I had sent in the report, I disregarded the two following requests to file. I thought the state may have made a mistake in processing my report. Unfortunately, I had forgotten to send in payment and I was at fault.

I am enclosing normal fee of $150 and hope that you will be understanding and abate additional penalties. Should you need to reach me, my telephone number is 727-584-2360.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

John Thomas
