(b) Suite Owners other than the Developer shall be entitled to elect a majority of the Board of Directors of the Association at such time as the earliest of the following shall occur: (i) three (3) years after fifty percent (50%) of the total Suites of the Condominium have been conveyed to purchasers, or (ii) three (3) months after ninety percent (90%) of the total Suites in the Condominium have been conveyed to purchasers, or (iii) when all the Suites in the Condominium have been completed, some of them have been conveyed to purchasers and none of the others are being offered for sale by the Developer in the ordinary course of business, or (iv) when some of the Suites have been conveyed to purchasers and none of the others are being constructed or offered for sale by the Developer in the ordinary course of business, and (v) seven (7) years after recordation of the Declaration of Condominium.

During the period the Developer is in control of the Association, the directors shall exercise all rights, powers and privileges that would otherwise be exercisable by the members. The Developer may, at its option, at any time in writing waive its right to control the Association and turn over control to the Suite Owners, who must then accept such turnover from Developer.

ARTICLE XI

XI.1) Indemnification of Officers and Directors.

The Association shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or contemplated action, suit or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, employee, officer or agent of the Association, against all liabilities and expenses (including attorneys' fees and appellate attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceedings, unless (a) a court of competent jurisdiction determines, after all available appeals have been exhausted or not pursued by the proposed indemnitee, that he or she did not act in good faith, nor in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he or she had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful, and (b) such court further specifically determined that indemnification should be denied. The termination of any action, suit or proceedings by judgment, order, settlement, convictions or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, or itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

XI.2.) Expense.

To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Article XI.1. above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorney's fees and appellate attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith

XI.3.) Advances.

Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the affected director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is entitled to be indemnified by the Association as authorized in this Article XI.

XI.4. Miscellaneous.

The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of members or other wise, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such person.

XI.5. Insurance.

The Association shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association, or is or was serving, at the request of the Association, as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, general partnership, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

XI.6. Amendment.

Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the provisions of this Article XI. may not be amended without the prior written consent of all persons whose interest would be adversely affected by such amendment.

ARTICLE XII

XII.1) ByLaws.

The Board of Directors of the Association shall adopt By-Laws for the conduct of its business and the carrying out of its purposes.

The By-Laws of the Corporation may be made, altered, amended or rescinded by the Association and by the Board of Directors in the manner provided in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE XIII

XIII.1) Amendments.

Subject to the provisions of Section XIII.2 and XIII.3 of this Article XIII, amendments to the Articles of Incorporation shall be proposed and adopted in the following manner:

(a) Notice of the subject matter of a proposed amendment shall be included in the notice of any meeting at which a proposed amendment is to be considered.

Directors and members not present in person or by proxy at the meeting considering the amendment may express their approval in writing, providing such approval is delivered to the Secretary at or prior to the meeting.

(c) A copy of each amendment shall be certified by the Secretary of State and shall be recorded in the Public Records of Sarasota County, Florida, which shall include within the first page thereof the book and page of the Public Records where the Declaration of Condominium is recorded.

XIII.2.) Limitation on Amendments.

No amendment shall make any changes in the qualifications for membership nor the voting rights of members, nor make any change in Section IV.2. of Article IV., of Article X. or Article XI. without approval in writing by the Developer, all members and the joinder of all record owners of mortgages upon all or any portion of the Condominium. No amendment shall be made that is in conflict with the Condominium Act of the State of Florida, the Declaration of Condominium or which deletes or modifies any of the rights of the Developer hereunder without the prior written consent of the Developer.

XIII.3. Initial Amendments May be Made Only by Initial Board of Directors.

Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, until the first election of directors by the members, amendments to these Articles of Incorporation may be proposed and adopted only by the unanimous action of the Initial Board of Directors named in these Articles or their replacements, subject to the provisions of Florida Statutes Section 718.110(4), if applicable.
