To Whom It May Concern:

On July 2, 1999, I received a second notice of a 1999 Corporation Annual Report. This being my first corporation, I was unaware of having to fill out any report. In addition, I never received any other mailing to this effect. I immediately called your office and spoke with Mark, who was very helpful in explaining the entire process to me.

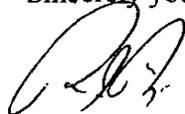

I explained to him that we moved from our previous residence in November 1998, and that I notified to IRS of the address change. He explained to me that I also had to notify the state of Florida.

The problem that I'm facing is the fact that I never received the first notice. I had a series of problems with my previous post office forwarding our mail to us after we moved. This can be verified with the supervisor in charge of the Quail Roost Postal Branch in Miami, FL 33177. We found that mail was being delivered to our vacant residence even in January 1999. Unfortunately we never received much of our mail. We were advised of this by a former neighbor who found our mail overflowing our box and all over the ground on the main street where all of the mail boxes were positioned. We had to finally remove our mailbox just so they would stop delivering mail to a vacant residence.

Mark advised me to write a letter explaining the situation and to fill out the second notice and mail it in with the $150.00 filing fee. As additional proof, I have enclosed the Bill of Sale of our previous residence, which finally took place last month. If you have any other questions, please contact me at 352-314-9441 Home, or 352-314-8662 Fax.

Thank you very much for your understanding, and please forgive my ignorance as this is my first time dealing with all of the paperwork needed for a corporation.

Sincerely yours,

Richard J. Rojas,
Prestige Construction Group, Inc.
