RE: Notes Development Corp.
2915 Squire Oak Court
St. Cloud, FL 34769
EI# 59-3567497

To Whom It May Concern,

Enclosed you will find the 2000 Uniform Business Report for Notes Development Corporation. Although the report is being filed beyond the May 1 deadline, we are enclosing a check for $150 and respectfully request that you consider waiving the late filing penalty of $400 due to reasonable cause.

While traveling abroad, the director of the corporation had his briefcase stolen with many valuables in it. All efforts were made to recover the briefcase, but it was never recovered. One of these papers was the Uniform Business Report, which had been prepared and was ready to be filed in a timely manner. As soon as possible, the president of the corporation contacted me to prepare the report. It has taken additional time to gather all the necessary information to recreate the report. We believe that the late filing of this report is due to reasonable cause, and not willful neglect and thus, we respectfully request that the additional $400 late filing be waived in this case. We thank you in advance for your consideration.

Very Truly Yours,

Lori M. LeVasseur, CPA
