Re: Glen Oaks Butter & Egg Company, Inc.
FEI: 13-2624977

Dear Sir or Madam:

We are the accountants for the above referenced corporation and have been requested to respond to your recent request for the annual report due September 13, 2000.

Please be advised that the only shareholder and authorized signator of the corporation is a woman over 80 years of age and in very poor health. This condition has persisted for several years. We prepared the annual report and instructed her to pay the fee of $150 in April, 2000.

As soon as we received the report packet indicating that a penalty is now also due by September 13, 2000, we contacted our client to search her records. In fact, she had issued a check on April 15, 2000 and intended to have it mailed on that date. Upon further review, it appears that her caretaker, who assists her in her day to day activities and who was supposed to mail the report and check, merely filed everything away. This caretaker was also remiss in her other duties and has subsequently been dismissed.

Based on the foregoing, we respectfully request that you accept our client's original check for $150 in payment of the annual report. We feel that there is reasonable cause to abate the penalty charge due to her poor health, advanced years and reliance on a third party to perform certain functions. The corporation's previous filing history is without blemish.

Thank you for your courtesy in this matter.

Very truly yours,

ELLENBOGEN RUBENSTEIN EISDORFER & CO., LLP
