To Whom It May Concern:

After receiving a letter from your office dated July 21, 2000 requesting a corrected annual report/uniform business report, we made the appropriate corrections and returned it to your office. We have now received a second letter stating that you have received the corrections but had not received payment. As I had outlined in a telephone conversation on August 21, 2000, we already sent payment with check number 2421 dated January 21, 2000. I am forwarding a copy of the check stub for your perusal. Unfortunately, through no fault of our own, somehow that check apparently did not reach your office. We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused you. We have enclosed a check in the amount of $150.00. We understand that you require a fee to be assessed in the event of late payment. We are hoping that due to our history of on-time payments and an attempt to pay on-time this year, in good faith, that you can waive the late fee. We appreciate your generous consideration in this matter. Should you require any further information, please feel free to contact me anytime at (561) 624-1384.

Sincerely,

Frank Eucalitto
