September 13, 2000

Dear Sirs,

Enclosed please find my year 2000 annual reports for:

INDUCOM CORP, INTERNATIONAL INDUSTRIAL CORP. & INDUSTRIAL INTERNATIONAL CORP.

I spoke with someone in your office, that stated you would consider abating the late fees if I wrote to you and provided good reason.

I am 85 years old and my health has not been very good. I underwent triple bi-pass surgery at Holy Cross Hospital and I am still recovering. In the past I've always filed my annual reports timely. I've never asked nor received any "late filing" statement in the past (I've been filing timely since the 80's). I've taken steps so that my nephew Robert Ghitis will make sure that these late filings will not be repeated.

My company's have done nothing but cost me money. The 3rd company has not had any sales for over 2 years. To pay the late fees would be a great financial burden and I would consider just closing the companies. I greatly appreciate your consideration regarding getting the companies reinstated without costing additional monies.

Truly Yours,

Juan H. Sass
