ARTICLE IX
LIMITATION OF DIRECTOR LIABILITY

1. A Director is not personally liable for monetary damages to the Corporation or any other person for any statement, vote, decision, or failure to act, regarding corporate management or policy, by a director, unless:

a. The director breached or failed to perform his duties as a director; and

b. The director's breach of, or failure to perform, those duties constitute:

(1) A violation of the criminal law, unless the director had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. A judgment or other final adjudication against a director in any criminal law estops that director from contesting the fact that his breach, or failure to perform, constitutes a violation of the criminal law; but does not estop the director from establishing that he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful;

(2) A transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit, either directly or indirectly;

(3) A circumstance under which the liability provisions of the Florida Business Corporation Act Section 607.0834 is applicable;

(4) In a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor or by or in the right of a shareholder, conscious disregard for the best interest of the Corporation, or willful misconduct; or

(5) In a proceeding by or in the right of someone other than the Corporation or a shareholder, recklessness or an act of omission which was committed in bad faith or with malicious purpose or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard of human rights, safety or property.

2. The limitation of director liability will be consistent with the Florida Business Corporation Act, as the same may be from time to time amended.
