To whom it may concern:

We are being charged $600.00 in penalty charges on the application for reinstatement due to failure to apply by the deadline.

The reason why we failure to pay by the deadline was because we did not received the bill on time, the first and only bill we received was on October 23, 2000. As soon as I received I send it to my accountant and he explained to me what was going on.

Now I am writing this letter to requested the penalty charges to be remove from my account. Please also find with this letter the application for reinstatement and the check in the amount of $150.00.

If you have any question please do not hesitate to call me (305) 899-1605.
Thanks for your time and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Helena Maravalhas
