To Whom it May Concern,

Enclosed is the Form UBR for 2001. It only came to my attention after I received the current form that this had to be filed. Our corporation never received the first form that our lawyer says should have been sent. This is our first corporation and we never knew there was such a form. We had problems setting up the corporation due to problems at the law firm we used. We completely relied on the lawyer filing for the corporation, to advise us of our requirements. We even asked if there was anything else we needed to do after we filed the final papers. We have since changed law firms and now believe we are on the right track. However, since we are just one year old and still struggling to survive, we are respectfully requesting ~~to~~ to be relieved of this additional burden.

for filing late. We realize that it is our responsibility to file all the proper forms for the corporation, but we also feel that we showed due diligence by seeking the advice of a professional to file for our corporation and giving us the necessary information to comply with corporate rules and regulations. All of our sales tax forms and payments are up to date as well as any forms the county has required us to file. To my knowledge, this is the only form that was not filed in a timely fashion for this corporation. Therefore, we request that you consider the extenuating circumstances involved and accept the enclosed $150 as payment in full. Thank you for your Consideration.
