RECEIVED
AUG 10 AM 7:38
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE FLORIDA

1. The name of this corporation is The Carpenter's Shop Church, Inc..
2. "The purpose of The Carpenter's Shop Church, Inc, shall be for the dissemination of the Christian religion both local and/or national. To engage in and carry on all kinds of Home and Foreign missionary work, to license and ordain elders, teachers, ministers, evangelists; thereby giving, granting, and bestowing upon them each and every ecclesiastical power, privilege and authority as Christian clergymen to publish religious literature, to establish and conduct religious schools and institutes, and to engage in any church related activities to help spread the Gospel, including, but not limited to the establishing of Churches"
- 2.a The Church shall include, but not be limited to, eleemosynary activities as a non-stock corporation, not for profit in nature and function as a Bona Fide Church conducting religious services, performing religious rites and services to members and the general community at large. Funds received through the various programs are to be cycled through the Church for the support of the operational cost (including salaries, utilities, etc.), Administrative costs (salaries for officials, plus insurance, housing, and costs for travel incident to Church business), Ministerial and Educational development to up-grade performance levels, and rehabilitational services by and through the operation of Thrift Stores, Social Service Centers, Book Stores, Institutions of learning on the primary, secondary and higher educational levels, and any other lawful undertaking for the purpose of generating funds to promote said programs. It is the central most objective of the Church to reach people through the facilities of the various programs for the express purpose of converting them to the Christian Faith. To facilitate the reality of this goal, the Church shall be authorized, under the provisions of the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America, to Ordain Bishops, Ministers, and Elders; License Ministers and Evangelists; establish Churches; perform religious services, rites and practices adhered to by the Church; receive and disburse funds to qualified recipients; and to conduct such other activity in a lawful manner for the promotion of the intrinsic functions of the Church. Secondly, but not less in importance, the Church shall aggressively seek to serve the community and the public at large through the various programs and endeavors, plus the out-reach methods of printed material and other public media, and the levels of the Spiritual, Socio-psychological, and Physical needs. The above stated Objectives and Purposes of the Church reflect the intent, Defacto and Dejure, in the origin of this corporation, and shall be guiding factors of the future operation, as in the past. Further, the services of the Church shall be open to members of all races, sexes, and national origins without discrimination against their rights to life, liberty and pursuit of happiness. The Carpenter's Shop Church, Inc is a NON-SECTARIAN CHURCH and inter-faith in nature organized under God's Law.
3. The location of the principle office of The Carpenter's Shop Church, Inc will be 4183 Old Mill Cove Trail West, Jacksonville, Florida 32277. The location of the principal office may be changed from time to time by amendment to these bylaws.

5. The general management of the affairs of this corporation shall be under the control, supervision and direction of a board of Elders which shall have at least three members.
6. Election and Term of Office: The Pastor/Founder shall be appointed for life. All directors shall be appointed by the Pastor and voting members in good standing. Any member not in agreement with this ministry is automatically terminated as defined in our Constitution. Upon the death, resignation or incapacity of a director, a new director will be elected by a majority of the remaining Elders
7. Unless otherwise indicated, section references hereinafter are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as in effect on January 1, 1978, and include future amendments to such sections and corresponding provisions of future Internal Revenue Laws.
8. The power of this corporation shall be those powers permitted to be exercised by nonprofit corporations under the laws of the State of Florida provided that no power shall be exercised by this corporation nor shall it commit any act that would invalidate their first amendment rights of religious freedom, its tax exempt status as defined under section 501(c)(3) or 503(b) IRS Code of 1954, or Section 508(c) IRS Code of 1995 and comparable provisions of any Federal or State tax law.
9. The assets of this corporation are irrevocably dedicated to the purpose of the corporation as provided above in article number two except that upon dissolution or winding up of this corporation, its assets remaining after payment of liabilities may be transferred to any organization which is exempt from tax under section 501 (c)(3) or 503(b) Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or 508(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1995 and comparable provisions of any Federal or State tax laws.
10. No part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any Elder, officer or member thereof or to the benefit of any private individual or organization.
11. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the association shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office.
12. Except for irrevocable provisions, these articles may be amended by a majority vote of its voting members according to the by laws.
