To Whom It May Concern:

I contacted Michelle Milligan with your office on 09/04/2001 at 11:30 am EST because we had not received our 2001 Uniform Business Report. We have a forwarding address order at the post office, and we also forwarded a card to the Dept. of State in order to have our address changed. Michelle informed me that our Uniform Business Report was mailed to our old address, which we never received. She instructed me to send in $150.00 with this letter, explaining why we were late, and also provided me with instructions to download the required form from your website, which I have done.

We are a very small company and cannot afford to pay $500.00 for this filing, and certainly would have filed it on time, had the form been received on our end. Please accept our $150.00 as payment, and please update our address as shown to ensure we are on time with our 2002 report.

We certainly appreciate your assistance in this matter, and would appreciate you acknowledging that the necessary steps have been taken to keep us in good standing.

Sincerely Yours,

Mike Guida, President
