ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF DONNELLY AND MILLER, P.A.

WE, the undersigned subscribers to these Articles of Incorporation do hereby associate ourselves together to form a professional service corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, by and under the provisions of Chapter 621, Florida Statutes, providing for the formation, liability, rights, privileges and immunities of a corporation for profit.

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation shall be:

DONNELLY AND MILLER, P.A.

ARTICLE II

The nature of the business to be transacted by this professional service corporation is to render professional legal services to the general public and to do all things in connection therewith that are customarily done by persons qualified to practice law in the State of Florida, and in accordance with "The Professional Service Corporation Act" of Florida, to invest its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds or other types of investments, and to own real and personal property necessary for the rendering of professional services. The business of the corporation shall be limited to the foregoing activities and no others.

ARTICLE III

The capital stock of this corporation shall consist of 1,000 shares of common stock at a par value of one ($1.00) Dollar per share. Said stock shall be issued pursuant to a plan under Section 1244 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended by the Small Business Tax Revision Act of 1958. All of said stock shall be payable in cash, or property other than stock or securities, in lieu of cash, at a just valuation to be determined by the Board of Directors of this corporation.

ARTICLE X

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the stockholders, and approved at a stockholders' meeting by a majority of the stock entitled to vote thereon, unless all the directors and all the stockholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that an amendment to these Articles of Incorporation be made.

ARTICLE XI

1. No one other than an individual who is duly licensed as an attorney under the laws of the State of Florida may own any corporate stock of this corporation, nor may any shareholder enter into a voting trust agreement or any other type of agreement vesting another person with the authority to exercise the voting power of any or all of his stock.

2. If any officer, shareholder, agent or employee of this corporation who has been rendering professional services to the public becomes legally disqualified to render such services within the State of Florida, or accepts employment that, pursuant to the existing law, places restrictions or limitations upon his continued rendering of such professional services, his employment with and financial interest in this corporation shall cease forthwith except to receive payment for such shares of stock in this corporation as are owned by him, and any other amounts that are lawfully due the shareholder by the corporation.

3. No shareholder of this corporation and no personal representative of a deceased or incompetent shareholder may sell or transfer any of such shareholder's shares of stock in this corporation except to another individual who is duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized within this state to render the same professional service of this corporation.

4. The Board of Directors is specifically authorized from time to time to adopt By-Laws not inconsistent herewith, restraining the alienation of shares of stock of this corporation and providing for the purchase or redemption by the corporation of those shares of stock should the shareholders' interest be terminated for any reason.

5. The corporation shall have the power to enter into, for the benefit of its employees, one or more of the following: (a) a pension plan, (b) a profit sharing plan, (c) a stock bonus plan, (d) a thrift and savings plan, (e) a restricted stock option plan, or (f) other retirement or incentive compensation plans.

ARTICLE XII

The subscribers to these Articles of Incorporation have named Paul Joseph Donnelly, located at 9822 N.E. 2nd Avenue, Miami Shores, Florida 33138, as its agent to accept process of service within the State of Florida.
