To Whom It May Concern,

Dear Sir/Madam:

RE: Document #P96000081086

We are writing this letter as per our conversation with Ms. Eula Peterson in your department. We had tried to file this report on-line back in April of 2002 through www.sunbiz.org. Our administrative assistant, Ms. Jennifer Robbins, confirms that the filing was successful but she does not remember if the credit card transaction went through or not.

I personally tried again when I received the late notice last week. The system was very slow but the filing went through. However, I did not receive a confirmation for my credit card transaction. I called the Internet Access Department and spoke with Ms. Gina. She suggested that I write a letter to your department for missing the filing deadline due to the malfunctioning Electronic filing system.

You will notice in all the reports we have filed so far (since 1996), we have never missed a deadline. We are humbly requesting that you waive the late filing fee of $400.00 and take into consideration our prompt filing record to date.

Sincerely,

Nizar Layji,
President & CEO
