FIRST AMENDMENT TO CORPORATE CHARTER OF
MARTIN COUNTY SPECIAL NEEDS TRAINING, INC.

By unanimous resolution of the Board of Directors and all members of the corporation passed and adopted at a Special Meeting of the Board of Directors and members held for the purpose of adopting the following provisions into the Articles of Incorporation of Martin County Special Needs Training, Inc. held on July 25th, 2002, the Articles of Incorporation were hereby amended by the addition of the following provisions. The members were entitled to vote on the change in the charter and all voted unanimously to amend the charter. A unanimous vote of all members and directors is sufficient to amend the charter.

ARTICLE TEN CHARITABLE PURPOSE

A. This organization is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including, for such purposes as the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal estate tax code.

B. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

C. Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or the state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of Common Pleas in the county in which the principal office of the organization is located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

LIMITATIONS ON COMPENSATION OF SALARIED PERSONS

The following provision is adopted to assure that compensation is determined in an unbiased manner.

The majority of the Board of Directors will be non-salaried and will not be related to salaried personnel or to parties providing services. In addition, salaried individuals cannot vote on their own compensation. All decisions relating to salaried positions shall be made by the Board of Directors excluding any individuals who might benefit from the decisions.

In compliance with the IRS letter dated July 5, 2002, this provision is expressly signed by two directors.
