To whom it may concern,

I am writing with regard to payment of my 2002 UBR.

I recently received a form indicating the deadline for filing was September 12, 2002, and that the fee was $550. It referred to a previous mailing indicating a May first deadline and a fee of $150. I scoured my records and show no such notice was received.

After eleven years at my own address, I recently relocated into someone else's facility. I am dependent on someone else sorting my mail from several others, and either the original form never arrived or never made it to my office. This is not the first time this has happened. I have indicated a change to my home mailing address to avoid this problem in the future. I would ask you take this under consideration and accept the enclosed check for $150 original filing fee. SPOTS is a one man operation, and this year has been especially tough. The $400 late fee would be a hardship at a time when I'm struggling to stay afloat.

I appreciate your consideration.

Regards,

Robert A. Labeski/SPOTS Inc.
