To whom it may concern,

This letter is in response to one we recently received from your office stating that our Corporation has been dissolved. As a board we apologize if we have failed to meet a requirement from the State but please believe it was in no way intentional. This letter is to also ask for leniency concerning the reinstatement fee of our application due to events out of our control. Let us explain.

At the end of 2001 our previous President of the Home Owners Association hired a Management Company to take over the day to day business of our neighborhood. This was done without the vote of the residents and was not taken very well. In February our annual meeting was held in which we found that there were only two of the required five board members running the association and that they had signed more contracts than could be paid for out of our budget. We were not sure what the thought process was but the homeowners voted to put in place a new board of directors. With the new board in place the previous board members made themselves very unavailable for any assistance on what is needed to run the association. As well the Management Company was doing a very poor job and when asked to explain their actions they wrote themselves a number of checks draining our bank account and disappeared. Before leaving they made sure they left us in bad shape and did what they could to make life hard on us. We are filing a court case on them and as well have notified State and Federal agencies of their actions. The New Board was left with no files or records to run on and over the past four months we have been trying to sort out what happened. None of us have ever been on a Home Owners Association Board before and are stumbling through this learning period.

A few weeks ago we received a renewal packet from your office stating that we had until September to resubmit for the organization telling us that everything was ok in that area. Then we received your letter stating we were dissolved for not responding to another letter. Since we took over in March we have never received a notice to correct or it surely would have been taken care of by now. Perhaps this letter was sent to the old management company and never forwarded to us. This would not be the first incident of this.

As you can see by the application, all of the positions have new people in place and it was our understanding from receiving your renewal notice that we had paid our fee until September leaving us no action needed until then. Again, our reasons for asking for eliminating the reinstatement fee are; no notice received that we were not in compliance, and we have limited funds until the legal cases clear the judicial system.

Thank you,
The Executive Board

This package is being submitted again with the changes requested in your letter. On two occasions we have spoken with someone from your office explaining that we did not receive your notice of the corporation being dissolved. In both conversations we were informed that the reinstatement fee could be waived. Due to our present financial situation as a non-profit organization we are asking for this leniency:

Please work with us on this matter.
