ARTICLE III

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:
To request funds for the center to provide services for pre-school age children who are unprivileged and who would benefit from learning activities, play materials, meals and caring support. Funding is needed for educational materials, teacher resources and the establishment of the Center. Funding will also enable us to serve greater numbers of youth and open the doors to government and other private funding. With this program, children and youth have a significantly better chance of remaining in school, refraining from illicit behavior, attending college, finding good-paying jobs and becoming productive members of society as a result we will partner with other programs/organizations.

ARTICLE IV

The manner in which the directors are elected or appointed:
By anonymous vote.
