Article III Purpose

The purposes for which this Corporation is organized are religious, charitable and educational within the meaning of the Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law, and such purposes shall include but not limited to the following:

1. Providing a place of worship and a place of fellowship for those of faith and providing training to the disciples of Christ.
2. Developing outreach ministries to reach the world.
3. Conducting a local church by the direction of the Lord Jesus Christ and under the leadership of the Holy Spirit as set forth in the Holy Bible, the irrevocable Word of God. Pursuant thereto, the following activities and guidelines shall be established:
 - (a) A recognized Creed, Code of Doctrine, discipline and form of worship shall be established.
 - (b) An ecclesiastical form of government shall be established.
 - (c) A church membership based upon a acceptance of a recognized creed and belief and support of the church shall be established.
 - (d) Various religious services pursuant to a recognized creed, form of worship, code of doctrine and discipline of the church and schools for religious and educational instruction to the young and to the old shall be established.
4. As a means of accomplishing the above purposes and methods, the Corporation shall have the following powers:
 - (a) To accept, acquire, receive, take and hold by bequest, devise, grant, gift, purchase, exchange, lease, transfer, judicial order to decree, or otherwise, for any of its objects and purposes, and any property, both real and personal, of whatever kind, nature of description and wherever situated.
 - (b) To sell, exchange, convey, mortgage, lease transfer or otherwise dispose of, any such property, both real and personal, as the objects and purposes of the Corporation may require, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law.
 - (c) To borrow money, and, from time-to-time, to make, accept, endorse, execute and issue bonds, debentures, promissory notes, moneys borrowed or in payment for property acquired, or for any of the other purposes of the Corporation, and to secure the payment of any such obligations by mortgage, pledge, deed, indenture, agreement in regard to all or any part of the property, rights, or privileges of the Corporation wherever situated, whether now owned or hereafter to be acquired.
 - (d) To invest and reinvest its funds in stock, common or preferred, bonds, debentures, mortgages, or in such other securities and property, real and personal, as it shall deem advisable, subject to limitations and conditions contained in any bequest, devise, grant or gift, provided such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 an applicable regulations thereunder, as they now exist or as they may be amended.
