Dear Mrs. Hood;

I would like to ask you, please, not to dissolve my corporation. I apologize for the delay, but I did not receive the annual report letter by mail. I totally forgot because that notice always reminds me about it. Furthermore, my business has been really slow in income and there is no way I can pay the late fee. I will be forced to close it down and this is really the only source of support I have. I beg that you give me a chance to continue with my business, and please waive the late fee.

I hope you can consider my situation. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Denis Osorio

President
