Gentlemen:

I am writing this letter to ask you to consider my situation. I am 73 years old and still I am working. I retired last year from the DOT in Florida. I opened my company to work as a consultant since I am a Civil Engineer and my knowledge and expertise will help many. I am not computer savvy so if I had to register my company I sent in the card from you to send me the forms for this years registration but the forms never came so I forgot to write to you again. Now I see that I didn't pay my registration fee. Please allow me to pay you now before this year ends. I am enclosing 158.75 I appreciate your consideration.

Thank you
Lester M. Hines
