The capitalized terms used herein shall have the meanings, if any, given to them in the Declaration of Covenants, Restrictions and Easements for 230 Shore, recorded (or to be recorded) in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, as hereafter amended and/or supplemented from time to time (the "Covenants") unless the context clearly requires otherwise; provided, however, that the term "Member" shall mean a member of the Association as provided herein.

Article 2
PURPOSES AND POWERS

The objects and purposes of the Association are those objects and purposes as are authorized by the Covenants. The further objects and purposes of the Association are to preserve the values and amenities of all Dwellings which are now or hereafter developed within the properties which are subjected to the Covenants (hereinafter referred to as the "Properties") and to maintain the Common Areas for the benefit of the Members of the Association and the Owners of the Dwellings within 230 Shore (the "Community").

The Association is not organized for profit and no part of the net earnings, if any, shall inure to the benefit of any Member or individual person, firm or corporation.

The Association shall have the power to contract for the management of the Association and to delegate to the party with whom such contract is entered into, which party may be an affiliate of 230 Shore Court, LLC, a Florida limited liability company (the "Declarant"), the powers and duties of the Association, except those which require specific approval of the Board or the Members.

The Association shall have all of the common law and statutory powers of a corporation not-for-profit which are not in conflict with the terms of these Articles and the Covenants. The Association shall also have all of the powers necessary to exercise all of the Association's rights and privileges, to perform all of its duties and obligations and to otherwise implement the purposes of the Association as set forth in the Covenants, as well as the powers and duties of an association which are set forth in Chapter 720 of the Florida Statutes (2004), as amended from time to time. The Association shall further have all of the powers necessary to provide for the common good, health, safety and general welfare of all of the Owners.

The foregoing statement of purposes shall be construed as a statement both of purpose and of powers, and such purposes and powers shall not be limited or restricted by reference to
