To Whom It May Concern:

I just received the letter from you stating that the report has not been filed due to a signature not on the sheet by the registered agent.

The letter is dated on May 24th but was not received until the week of June 19th in which there was no way I could comply within the 30 day time period due to the registered agent being out of town, in which I could not obtain his signature.

I would appreciate any consideration to having the $400 late fee waived.

Sincerely,

Samuel J. Asfur
