The Corporation may engage in or transact any or all lawful activities or business.

ARTICLE III- CAPITAL STOCK

Section 1 - Class of Stock. This Corporation is authorized to issue two classes of shares of its capital stock, designated, respectively, "Common Stock," and "Preferred Stock". This Corporation is authorized to issue 100,000,000 shares of Common Stock, with a par value of USD 0.01 per share, and 20,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, with a par value of USD 1.00 per share.

Section 2 – Common Stock. Each share of common stock shall have one vote and enjoy the same voting rights.

Section 3 – Preferred Stock. The Preferred Stock may be issued from time to time in one or more series. The Board of Directors is hereby authorized, within the limitations and restrictions stated in these Articles of Incorporation, to fix or alter the dividend rights, dividend rate, conversion rights, voting rights, rights and terms of redemption (including sinking fund provisions), the redemption price or prices, the liquidation preferences of any wholly unissued series of Preferred Stock, and the number of shares constituting any such series and the designation thereof, or any of them; and to increase or decrease the number of shares of any series subsequent to the issue of shares of that series, but not below the number of shares of such series then outstanding and which the Company may be obligated to issue under options, warrants or other contractual commitments. In case the number of shares of any series shall be so decreased, the shares constituting such decrease shall resume the status which they had prior to the adoption of the resolution originally fixing the number of shares of such series.

This Corporation is to exist perpetually.

ARTICLE V - MANAGEMENT OF THE BUSINESS OF THE CORPORATION

Section 2 — Action by the Shareholders. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the shareholders of the Corporation may be effected at a duly called Annual or Special Meeting of Shareholders of the Corporation or by a consent in writing by such shareholders pursuant to Section 607.0704, Florida Statutes.

Section 3 — Special Meetings of the Shareholders. Special Meetings of Shareholders of the Corporation may be called by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the total number of authorized directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board for adoption), the Chairman of the Board or the President of the Corporation, and a special meeting shall be called by the President or the Chairman at the request in writing by shareholders holding at least one third of Such affirmative vote shall be required notwithstanding the fact that no vote may be required or that a lesser percentage may be specified by law or in any agreement with any national securities exchange or otherwise.

Section 3 — Exceptions: The voting provisions of Section 2 of this Article VII shall not be applicable to a particular Affiliated Transaction if all of the conditions specified in either of the following Paragraphs A and B are met:

- (c) if applicable, the price per share equal to the Fair Market Value per share as defined in Article VII, Section 1E, multiplied by the ratio of the Highest Per Share Price, including any brokerage commissions, transfer taxes and soliciting dealers' fees, paid by the Interested Shareholder for any shares of Voting Stock acquired by it within the two-year period immediately prior the Announcement Date (the numerator), to the Fair Market Value per share of such class or series on the first day in such two-year period on which the Interested Shareholder acquired the Voting Stock (the denominator); or
- (d) if applicable, the highest preferential amount per share to which the holders of shares of such Voting Stock are entitled in the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation.

2. The consideration to be received by holders of a particular class of outstanding Voting Stock (including Common Stock) shall be in cash or in the same form as the Interested Shareholder has previously paid for shares of such Voting Stock. If the interested Shareholder has paid for shares of any class of Voting Stock with varying forms of consideration, the form of consideration for such class of Voting Stock shall be either cash or the form used to acquire the largest number of shares of such class of Voting Stock previously acquired by it. 4. Unless approved by a majority of the Disinterested Directors, no Interested Shareholder shall have received the benefit, directly or indirectly (except proportionately as a shareholder), of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges or other financial assistance or any tax credits or other tax advantages provided by the Corporation, whether in anticipation of or in connection with such Affiliated Transaction or otherwise, during the three-year period preceding the date the Interested Shareholder became an Interested Shareholder.
5. A proxy or information statement describing the proposed Affiliated Transaction and materially complying with the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules and regulations thereunder (or any subsequent provisions replacing such Act, rules, or regulations) shall be mailed to shareholders of the Corporation at least 30 days prior to the consummation of such business combination (whether or not such proxy or information statement is required to be mailed pursuant to such Act or subsequent provisions).

A shareholder may demand payment for less than all of the shares registered in his/her name. The Corporation shall deliver all such demands for payment to the Acquiring Person immediately following the expiration of the ten-day period. The Acquiring Person shall then be obligated to purchase all shares subject to the demand for payment for the highest amount he has

ARTICLE XII- INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1 — General: The Corporation shall indemnify any officer, director, employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by Section 607.0850, Florida Statutes, as it now exists or may hereafter be amended, but in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment. This includes, but is not limited to, any person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative ("Proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such Proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, employee or agent, reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith. Such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that the Corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnity in connection with an action, suit or Proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. Such right shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation for all expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that the payment of such expenses incurred by a director or officer in his or her capacity as a director officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such person while a director or officer, including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding, shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it should be determined ultimately that such director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article or otherwise.

Section 2 — Failure to Pay Claim: If a claim under Section 1 of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within 90 days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, the claimant may at anytime thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the required undertaking, if any, has been tendered to the Corporation) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under Section 607.0850 for the Corporation to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Corporation. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 607.0850, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the claimant has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

Section 3— Other Rights: The rights conferred on any individual by Sections 1 and 2 of this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which such individual may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of these Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws of the Corporation, agreement, vote of shareholders or Disinterested Directors or otherwise.

Section 4 — Insurance: The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any such director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any such expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under Section 607.0850.

Section 5 — Personal Liability: A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for any statement, vote, decision or failure to act regarding corporate management or policy except as provided under Florida law. If Section 607.0850 is amended after adoption of these Articles of Incorporation and such amendment further eliminates or limits the power of the corporation to indemnify the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted under Florida law.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the shareholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect or retrospectively diminish any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE XIII - AMENDMENT

The Corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner prescribed by the laws of the State of Florida, and all rights conferred upon shareholders are granted subject to this reservation; provided, however, that, notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation or any provision of law which might otherwise permit a lesser vote or no vote, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two thirds of the voting power of all of the then-outstanding shares of the Capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (after giving effect to the provisions of Article III), voting together as a single class, shall be required to amend or repeal this Article XIII, Section 3 of Article VII, Article VIII, Article IX, Article X, or Article XI.
