Re : 2008 Annual Report

Dear Sir or Madam,

In the beginning of this year I received my notice and like always I send it back choosing option 3, to receive a form by mail. Not being on line and making several moves in the last three years this has not been a problem. I have always filed the 8822 form and address changes with the Post Office and my Creditors. This year I did not receive a form and totally forgot about it until I received this notice of intent to dissolve. I also understand its my responsibility and I should have marked my calendar, followed up and not forgot.

I am still in business but was concerned about the late fee, so I called the office number in Tallahassee. I spoke to a lady and she advised me to write and send this letter with the form and check for normal fees, requesting the late fee to be dropped.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "John Seres". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large loop at the beginning.

John Seres / President
